I really want to be in the enquirer

Monika(Jump) does an excellent fish impression in Kalicos

Dedication

As I (pathetically) sit at home on Friday night watching Jonathon Ross I thought the subject this week would be dedication. Not a word that immediately springs to mind when connected to the editor. But as I recollect an hour earlier when I was embraced by a slightly tipsy birthday celebrating Jess(Jump). I could either go home and wile the evening away in the company of Mr Ross and later Kelly leBrock (Weird science) or I could attempt to give Jess a bon anniversere down in Le Praz. A lesser person would have been in their like Flynn but not me. I am putting aside my personal gratification so you have some drunken ramblings to read on a Saturday and not a Sunday or Monday.

The irony is that as I write this my graphic package went a bit queer. No thanks to the Polish hex that Monika "the Monkfish" put on my computer for publishing this picture despite the number of witnesses who heard "I really want to be in the enquirer".

Many thanks to Lee for the interim use of his mac.

A note from the editor

Ahh the sweet sound in the bars of unbroken voices of 15 year olds pretending to be 18, and the presentation of badly memorised of fake ids (McLovin) can only mean that it's half term week. The only time when the horniness of chalet girls is eclipsed by their younger guests.

The date for the end of season ball has now been confirmed with the Chalet des Pierres being reserved for the 15th April.

And as always, if you wish to receive the enquirer directly in your email inbox you can sign up on www.courchevelenquirer.com.

THE SURGEON GENERAL WARNS

Doing ski seasons can be highly addictive, can seriously damage your sanity, result in a general lack of sleep, makes your arse bigger, increase the chances of getting a blow job in the skidoo hut outside Kalico and waking up next to a complete stranger.

BROOKIE BOWL 2009

Saturday 7th March 11:00 at the Stade 1850

Get prepared, one of the main events for seasonaires this season in Courchevel is coming to town very soon! The Brooke Bowl 2009, Saturday March 7th 11:00 on the Stade in 1850. The Brookie Bowl is a GS race for Charity in memory of Simon Brooke, a ski teacher from Courchevel. It's a great fun day where you have the chance to race on the 1850 Stade against the clock, try and beat your mates and others including pro skiers and eurotest trainees! Tons of prizes, the infamous silver 'Brookie Bowl' and tankards will be up for grabs not too mention drinks and food that will be available in the tents at the bottom of the race course. The entry fee is 20€ which goes straight to the DSUK (Disability Snowsports UK) and the Brookie Bursary which helps train adaptive teachers and purchase equipment to aid children with disabilities to ski. This year we are proud to have racing members of the British Disabled Team! There are many different categories to enter, tell your mates even your clients, last season we had over 40 holiday makers take part, so don't delay, register today!

TO REGISTER or for more information contact: Supreme Ski School, 3 rue des Verdons, 1850 or call 0479082787 or gareth@supremeski.com. Entries must be made by Wednesday 4th March. Don't miss the best day of the season!

Quotes of the Week

Version Originals (VOST)

Courchevel has three very good little cinemas. The Terminal 1850, at the start of the luge run The Tremplin 1850 which has recently been upgraded to digital sound and vision and The Villard, based down in Courchevel 1650.

Below are the English films on at the cinema this week.

Tremplin, Courchevel 1850

Sun 15th 9pm - The Curious Case Of Benjamin Button

Starring: Cate Blanchett, Brad Pitt, Tilda Swinton Elle Fanning, Elias Koteas, Julia Ormond, Jason Flemyng

Plot:

Benjamin Button (Brad Pitt) is a boy born with the biology of a pensioner... As he grows up, he grows younger, and falls in love with Daisy (Cate Blanchett). Can their romance survive his curious condition?

Verdict:

Aptly for a film so concerned with time, Button is 13 minutes shy of three hours and just flies by. If this is Fincher selling out, can he sell out more often please? .... 55555

Mon 16th 9pm - Mamma Mia

Starring: Meryl Streep, Pierce Brosnan, Colin Firth, Amanda Seyfried, Stellan Skarsgard, Julie Walters

Plot:

Sophie (Seyfried) invites three men (Brosnan, Firth, Skarsgard) who could be her father to her wedding in Greece, unbeknownst to her single mother Donna (Streep). Shock reunions, confusions and Abba's greatest hits ensue.

Verdict:

Cute, clean, camp fun, full of sunshine and toe tappers. Guaranteed to put grins on tweenies who are in to High School Musical, grans with a pair of platforms still at the back of the wardrobe, and a lot of people in between tone. .... 555

Demis

I believe 284.130742 milliliters is the perfect serving of beer for a young lady such as myself.

Served in a shapely feminine glass; 'Demis' (or 'halves' as we say in England) allow us girls to enjoy a cool refreshing beer without being branded a "ladette". However, there appears to be a volumist movement taking place right here in Courchevel whereby it is approximately 1.4 times more expensive to drink demis as opposed to pints. This has distressed many ladies I know as on many an occasion they have been forced into purchasing a pint purely for financial purposes. Due to the increase in volume (as it is technically impossible to make a pint last as long as 2 demi's) this has not only resulted in a multitude of ridiculously spannered shenanigans but also a constant addition of ass pounds and oodles of UDI's thus potentially leaving us ladies poor, fat, crippled and drunk. Not a good look.

So girlies what do I propose? I say that if you cannot change the system beat the system, by always remembering that a pint shared is a problem halved.

Injury of the week

I guess there are two types of injuries this week. Real ones that involve broken wrist bones and plaster and others that are mainly there to garnish sympathy from unknowing chalet girls. I'll let you work out which of these photos is which.

Matt(Jump) has been in the wars this week for two reasons, none of which are actually skiing related.

His first was the result of a certain visiting Swed strategically moving out the way and letting gravity assist in some heavy nose/floor interaction.

His second an ingrown toenail although not visible has caused much amusement when Matt winces in pain when many co-workers "accidentally" step on it. (FYI it's the left one).

I WANT to dish the dirt

One of the major criticisms, One of the MANY major criticisms I get about this paper is that of all the Courchevel villages it only covers 1850 and sometimes 1650. The explanation for this is simple. I live in and drink around the bars of 1850 and so I hear what goes on in 1850. That's were you come in. If you have any stories, gossip, photos, suggestions etc. I want to hear from you.

As an added incentive the best article submitted every week will receive a case of beer. I am usually in one of the 1850 bars every evening. Alternatively for those of you who are more technically minded you can email be directly on info@courchevelenquirer.com The Courchevel Enquirer comes out every Saturday. I look forward to hearing from you.
