Naked Fridays

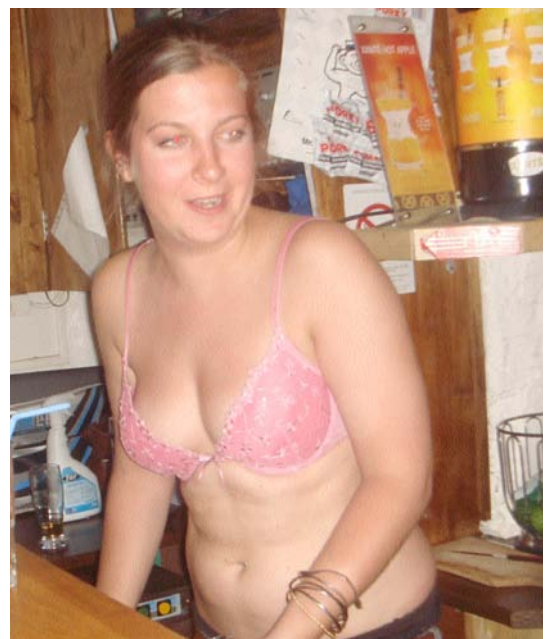

Although there has been a lot of nudity throughout the season it always seems that flesh is on display in TJ's. Usually as a result from spending the evening in the Ronnie. The catalyst for this night appeared to be Jen(Kili), who after a bottle of toffee vodka, was flashing her bra at every opportunity. It was only a matter of time before she got behind the bar and started to strip all the patrons. Basically anyone who wanted a drink had to remove their top. Before long there was more flesh on display than a butcher's window.

End of Season Ball

Once again Chalet de Pierres did an excellent job hosting the ball. Every years they out do themselves in being nice and hospitable. With the early closing of the Jump bar the before dinner drinks were included.

Every time food is mentioned at the ball it always comes under a lot of scrutiny especially as many of the seasonnaires are accomplished chefs. Are the portions tiny? Is it worth the price?

This year, once again, in my opinion it couldn't be faulted. From the very large goat's cheese salad starter to the amazing, and I don't use that word inadvisable, tart tatine desert was worthy of Chalet de Pierres quality.

And finally the band, Livewire, in my opinion, are one of the best in the alps. From the guitar antics of Diego to the dance competition hosted by Hoops it made it a truly memorable evening.

The end of season awards

The award for the most popular girl (a politically correct way of saying Slapper) was won (by only 2 votes) by Bex (Neilson).

The award for biggest male slapper was a very close two horse race between Russell(Skihiger) and Matt(Jump) who collectively have worked their way through nearly the entire female population of Courchevel, was won by Matt(Jump).

Quote of the season was won by Pete(Jump) after he brought the term "Ass Clown" into the Courchevel dictionary.

By a virtual landslide Abi(Skiworld) took the most talk it up award after purchasing a very expensive pair of skis that matched her ski outfit despite only using them on the Pralong run!

The best story of the season went to Jimbo(Jump) and Lucy(TJ's) for their agent provacteur pantie sharing incident.

The last award, a personal thank you from the editor, was presented to Debbie(Inghams). Since issue 10 Debbie has written a little article called "Debbie does" covering a wide range of topics from demis to apres ski.

The Final note from the editor

Can you believe it's been over 19 weeks since we first met? Very soon we will all go in our different directions, off into the real world. On your return to the UK and reality in a couple of weeks the prospect of a "proper" job and a living wage might seem appealing right now but given a couple of weeks of standing on an overcrowded underground train with a stranger's armpit invading your personal space, the joy of breathing top quality polluted air and the seemingly endless struggle to make your new salary cover your exorbitant living expenses, you will soon feel the withdrawal symptoms from a drug to which you have become unknowingly addicted. The mountains. You will then find you spend the next 6 months coming to terms with your addiction. Few will be able to resist the addictive allure of the Alps. Many will survive with only an occasional relapse that can be effectively treated with a week back on the slopes. Others will find they can only survive by getting another five-month fix next winter. As the Eagles described in their own admission of addiction and excess, Hotel California, "you can check out any time you like but you can never leave". You might go home but you always leave a little piece of you behind. You have been warned. See some of you next winter....

The only place in 1850 to offer free high speed wireless broadband

One of the major criticisms, One of the MANY major criticisms I get about this paper is that of all the Courchevel villages it only covers 1850 and sometimes 1650. The explanation for this is simple. I live in and drink around the bars of 1850 and so I hear what goes on in 1850. That's where you come in. If you have any stories, gossip, photos, suggestions etc. I want to hear from you.

As an added incentive the best article submitted every week will receive a case of beer. I am usually in one of the 1850 bars every evening. Alternatively for those of you who are more technically minded you can email me directly on info@courchevelenquirer.com The Courchevel Enquirer comes out every Saturday. I look forward to hearing from you.

THE SURGEON GENERAL WARNS

Doing ski seasons can be highly addictive, can seriously damage your sanity, result in a general lack of sleep, makes your arse bigger, increase the chances of getting a blow job in the skidoo hut outside Kalico and waking up next to a complete stranger.
