

Porn industry seeks federal bailout

Another major American industry is asking for assistance as the global financial crisis continues: Hustler publisher Larry Flynt and Girls Gone Wild CEO Joe Francis said Wednesday they will request that Congress allocate $5 billion for a bailout of the adult entertainment industry.

"The take here is that everyone and their mother want to be bailed out from the banks to the big three," said Owen Moogan, spokesman for Larry Flynt. "The porn industry has been hurt by the downturn like everyone else and they are going to ask for the $5 billion. Is it the most serious thing in the world? Is it going to make the lives of Americans better if it happens? It is not for them to determine."

I WANT YOU! to dish the dirt

One of the major criticisms, One of the MANY major criticisms I get about this paper is that of all the Courchevel villages it only covers 1850 and sometimes 1650. The explanation for this is simple. I live in and drink around the bars of 1850 and so I hear what goes on in 1850. That's were you come in. If you have any stories, gossip, photos, suggestions etc. I want to hear from you.

As an added incentive the best article submitted every week will receive a case of beer. I am usually in one of the 1850 bars every evening. Alternatively for those of you who are more technically minded you can email be directly on info@courchevelenquirer.com The Courchevel Enquirer comes out every Saturday. I look forward to hearing from you.

Credit Crunch Issue

Some seasonnaires still having problems getting to grips with how to properly use a condom

A note from the editor

As the resort starts to empty following the Russian festivities and many hoteliers start to see red in their accounts I thought it was a good time to focus on the credit crunch – but from a Courchevel perspective. Inside I've gone through every area of skiing and found the most expensive items currently available. Everything from the priciest chalet to the dearest skis.

Back in the real world Kalico are having an 80's fancy dress night on Tuesday and TJ's are doing something with ALOT of toffee vodka on Wednesday.

I know its only January but the Seasonnaire hoody forms (featuring the Porsche/Courchevel logo) are already being distributed. If you haven't seen one yet contact your manager. Don't forget, as always, if you wish to receive the enquirer directly in your email inbox you can sign up on www.courchevelenquirer.com.

Lock it or lose it.

No matter how many times people are warned about the threat of theft around resort they wander around in a dream world, leaving staff accommodation doors open, leaving their skis/boards unlocked and out of sight in bars/restaurants. I could go on but you get the idea. Would you leave your keys in your cars ignition or leave your apartment unlocked in the middle of London? Do people think that thieves and pikeys don't visit posh ski resorts? Obviously not!

Someone recently had TWO pairs of skis stolen in one day, possibly a new record, One pair of hire skis from their staff accommodation and one pair of personal skis from the Rond Point in Meribel. Unlucky? Yes, but I'm sure he will buy a tether lock and secure them in the future.

Closer to home stories of people walking through staff accommodation at night (while people are asleep) and stealing cash, laptops and ipods with impunity are not new but are getting more and more common as people don't pull outside doors shut behind them. People in smaller accommodation often don't lock their doors behind them after they have returned from a night out so their roommates can get in easily. They might as well hang a sign saying "please rob me". Most of the thieving is opportunistic with groups going around just trying doors and every year I write these warnings and every year it makes no difference. So instead of acting like a victim, just follow some simple rules and hopefully your season will be uneventful in that dept and you won't have to go through the hassle of police reports and making insurance claims.

THE SURGEON GENERAL WARNS

Doing ski seasons can be highly addictive, can seriously damage your sanity, result in a general lack of sleep, makes your arse bigger, increase the chances of getting a blow job in the skidoo hut outside Kalico and waking up next to a complete stranger.

Credit crunch - what credit crunch?

So while everyone was buying stocks you were short selling. While everyone else was opening an Icelandic high interest savings account you were storing your cash under the mattress.

Here are a few tips of how you can spend your ill gotten gains.

Snowboarding

Considered the most expensive snowboard in general production, the Pogo Maverick is priced at a mere 2,000€. Of course that does not include bindings, boots, or anything else – just the board. If you want to shop American-made, the most expensive snowboard available from Burton is the Vapour - a steal at only 750€. Although not made of solid gold, or made to look like a 60's surfboard, it is equally stunning and far more versatile. It features the new Carbon Vaporskin Lite(TM) fibreglass and Vaportech Alumafly(TM) core, which utilise Space Shuttle technology to give you a board so light it feels like riding on air, but still with maximum snap, strength, precise board control and feel.

Skis

Parisian trunk makers Pinel & Pinel have teamed up with French Ski makers Lacroix to create this limited edition ski set. The ski set contains a pair of Lacroix skis with Smartrack bindings, a pair of carbon fiber ski poles, leather ski gloves, ski goggles. The set comes in a Pinel & Pinel trunk which is made of carbon fiber on a steel frame and covered with full grain leather and features wheels for practical transportation. Only ten Pinel & Pinel Lacroix ski sets will be made and will be available exclusively from the new Lacroix store in Courchevel. 50000€

Clothing

Without choosing the easy option and just picking something that was previously worn by a bear or similarly large furry animal.

For Her: Bogner Ladies' Leana-DP Fur Insert Jacket with a minx fur insert. Price $3,699.00 add their Luta Pant $599.00

For Him: Spider Chamonix Jacket is a snip at £750. Add another £375 for the matching salopettes

Ski pass

With Courchevel yet to offer a special "very rich" tiered lift pass the worst you will pay is 970€ for a three valleys season pass. For a similar pass for the entire family it will set you back 4554€. To beat this you have to go further afield to Canada. Great Canadian Heli-Skiing in British Columbia is now offering a Platinum Heli-Skiing Season Pass for CDN $100,000(61,400€), making it quite literally the world's most expensive lift ticket.

The pass absolutely guarantees the holder a seat on one of GCH's A-Star B2 helicopters - forget about ski lifts or gondolas in this extreme terrain - every single day of the heli-skiing season, from December 26 to March 28, overriding all other bookings. The liftpass also gets you a personal "powder concierge" to keep you up to date on conditions and forecasts and advise you on getting the ultimate heli-skiing experience.

Accommodation

For a half term week in Descent's chalet Hermine in 1850 (10 persons) Feb 22nd will cost you £35650.

Alternatively if your name is Mr Obama then the Presidential suite in the Hotel Killimanjaro is just the right size for 2 will set you back a mere 2690€ per night (18830€ per week)

If you want a private chalet Les Sorbiers or Totara (10 persons) 51100€ per week

Transfers

If 2.5 hours in the back of a limo is just too long to wait to get to resort Whitetracks helicopters will bring you and 4 of your friends from Geneva to resort in about 25 minutes from a pauly 1500€.

Car Hire

Once you get into resort and want a little run around to take you from hotel to restaurant to nightclub locatax will rent you a nice Porsche Cayenne Turbo or Mercedes ML63 for only 900€ per day..

Seperated at Birth

It shouldn't happen to a cripple.

I don't know what it is about a girl on crutches but it has a similar effect as honey to a bee. Recently injured Debbie(Inghams) was on the receiving end of medical advice from a fellow seasonnaire. In a scene similar to that of a cripple being miraculously "healed" in Lourdes this physio/barman took her crutches away and started to convince her that she should, not only be walking but maybe start tap dancing. Leaving Debbie precariously balancing on one leg and leaning against a bar stool.

Matt(Jump) on the other hand decided to dispense with any medical advice, with the exception of some alcoholic pain relief and just decided to nick her crutches followed by a demonstration of how to drunkenly dance on (and almost falling off) the king table.

Grand frère is watching you

In a world of increasing surveillance and CCTV it was only a matter of time before Courchevel starting prying into our lives. At the beginning of the season two new cameras have surreptitiously sprung up around resort. One by the piste outside the Jump bar and one overlooking the Kailco from the road.

Quote of the Week

"Your balls are mine!"

Caroline(Jump) was slightly displeased with her front page photo.

Lesser Season Quotes

"I want to beat the cue outside Kalico"
Ryan(Snowlinx) inadvertently comes up with a new uphemism for wanking.

"3 things, The smile, the hair, and a cheeky remark"
Matt(Jump) explains the secret of his success.
