Crystal finest fancy dress

Crystal Finest go all 80s in Kalico bar. I know some of you value it on the same level as the paper used to wipe your arse. For those I apologise for not printing in Andrex copier paper.

However my faith was slightly restored when some slightly dazed Mark Warner staff commented on the great Wednesday night mutzig deals down in the Pleasure bar in 1550. Not only had they read it here but they had actually got out of 1850 and done something different. They should also try their lively Flugel Thursdays.

Not only that but, as you can see from the above photo, some seasonnaires albeit only one company, (Crystal finest to use their collect name) actually made an effort and dressed up for the 80's disco night at Kailcos. Most notable was Lucy and Sophia who didn't quite understand the term underwear putting their pants on general display. Not that that I'm complaining but being someone who remembers the 80's firsthand I don't think that style ever caught on (with the possible exception of Madonna). However this Tuesday night such daring fashions will fit in much better as Kailco hosts a Pimps & Prostitutes night.

All photos from all these them nights and past issues of the enquirers can be perused on the enquirer website. Don't forget, as always, if you wish to receive the enquirer directly in your email inbox you can sign up on www.courchevelenquirer.com.

A note from the editor

I've come across a sort of catch 22 situation. The following rant is aimed at people who don't actually read this so ultimately it's pointless but as that's never stopped me before I will carry on anyway.

On a weekly basis I try to inform every one of the many interesting things going on in resort but looking at the turnout at these events it looks like very few people are aware of them. After speaking to many people it appears that only a small number of my readership actually read it. Admit it most of you have a quick look at the pictures and quickly scan to see if you name/company (if you're a Scott Dunn manager) isn't mentioned. And if it isn't, please don't file it in the small cylindrical filing cabinet sitting next to your desk or leave it on the floor of the Jump

THE SURGEON GENERAL WARNS

Doing ski seasons can be highly addictive, can seriously damage your sanity, result in a general lack of sleep, makes your arse bigger, increase the chances of getting a blow job in the skidoo hut outside Kalico and waking up next to a complete stranger.

The end of season ball

I know we are only coming to the end of January but it's already time to start discussing the end of season ball. Of all the events I organise throughout the season the end of season ball is perhaps the most challenging. It's a very polarising subject; either people love it or hate it. Of course all of the detractors have probably never actually recently come to the ball, but that's their opinion.

Instead of just ending the season in a drunken haze of bar closures I organise a lovely black tie party in Chalet de Pierres including cocktails in the Jump, a ride up to the restaurant in a snow cat (depending on snow conditions) a fine three course meal followed by the end of season awards and a live band. The price last year was 65 euros, which I agree, on a seasonnaires wage is quite a lot but if you ask people who actually went they will say it was worth it.

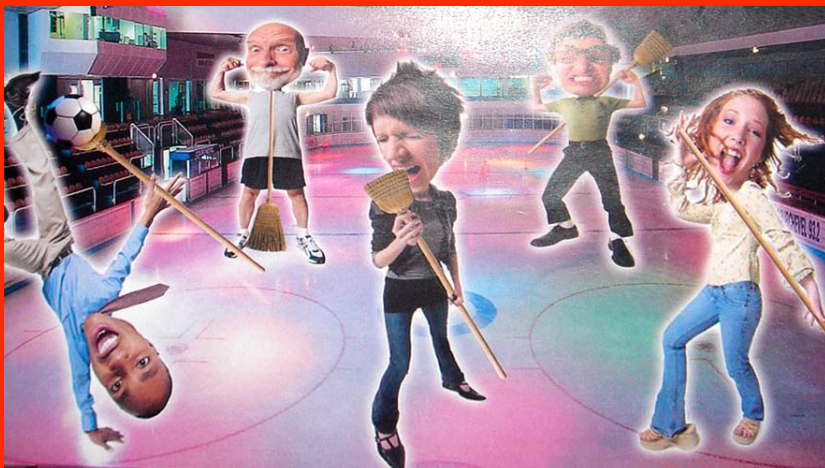

Now even though I organise it in a non-profit making way I still need to know that enough people are interested in order to go ahead.

Nanny snacks

Anyone visiting the Jump will have noticed that the Pringles have been rebranded by Pete(Jump). They are now known by the snappy tag line "Nanny Snacks" probably due to their popularity by the childcare dept of Scott Dunn.

If you only do one thing this week and allowing for that pesky work thing I strongly recommend you try this.

Ballon Ballai

Or Broom ball as it's called in English is a soft low contact version of Ice hockey. Skates are replaced by normal shoes. A broom is used instead of a hockey stick and a small kids football is used instead of the puck. The ice rink is divided into two with two simultaneously matches being played on the width of the court. Each team must be made up of 5 people with at least 2 girls. Each match lasts for only 10 minutes and if at the end there is a tie there is a head to head between one of the girls from each team.

It's free to enter and watch and is taking place at the icerink in 1850 from 8PM on Tuesday. PLEASE NOTE IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO TAKE PART PLEASE REGISTER YOUR TEAM AT THE TOURIST OFFICE IN 1850 BEFORE 5PM ON MONDAY. YOU CANNOT REGISTER ON THE DAY!

Injury of the week

The curse of the hotel Anemones continues claiming it's next victim. No sooner than the manager Debbie had ditched her crutches the Inghams barman, Adam did his knee ligaments. But unlike Debbie, who it turns out was really just faking her injury, Adam is temporarily returning to the UK for treatment but hopes to return in a few weeks to finish out the season.

ZERMATT MOCKED FOR CLEARING SNOW FROM STREET.

Holidaymakers in Zermatt have complained the Swiss resort is not snowy enough after a controversial decision to clear streets to prevent accidents.

The car-free community of Zermatt decided to rid its streets of winter snow after several accidents and two lawsuits last year. But now skiers are complaining the town does not look wintry enough.

"Cleaning the streets has turned out to be a mistake and we are waiting on more snow to correct this," Daniel Luggen, Zermatt's director of tourism, told Reuters. "It is definitely the first and the last time that we do this."

Luggen said neither guests nor locals were happy about the action in the town, situated beneath the famous steeple-shaped Matterhorn mountain.

"Even though we took a lot of snow away, we could not remove it all completely. The snow that was left was mixed with salt and dirt and it looked more like we had a beach in our streets. As soon as the weather turned milder, it all turned to mud," he said.

I WANT YOU!
to dish the dirt

One of the major criticisms, One of the MANY major criticisms I get about this paper is that of all the Courchevel villages it only covers 1850 and sometimes 1650. The explanation for this is simple. I live in and drink around the bars of 1850 and so I hear what goes on in 1850. That's were you come in. If you have any stories, gossip, photos, suggestions etc. I want to hear from you.

As an added incentive the best article submitted every week will receive a case of beer. I am usually in one of the 1850 bars every evening. Alternatively for those of you who are more technically minded you can email be directly on info@courchevelenquirer.com The Courchevel Enquirer comes out every Saturday. I look forward to hearing from you.
