

The Courchevel Enquirer

The shot of the night. Catherine a mm from Jager up the nose.

A note from the editor

So we are officially two fifths (or maybe one third) of the way through the season. December is a distance memory. January is a meer alcoholic blur. It won't be long before it starts getting warmer and thoughts of what to do when the snow melts now we finally have snow TO melt. This is course mean that seasonaire hoody forms are finally out. We had another amazing idea for the design. more details are on page 3.

On a final note. Aaron will be spinning his wheels of steel at the Disney party in the Bubble on Tuesday night. So all you princesses get your Disney/Pixar costumes out. I think i can guarantee there will be no more annoying inflatable killer whales...

THE SURGEON GENERAL WARNS

Doing ski seasons can be highly addictive, can seriously damage your sanity, result in a general lack of sleep, makes your arse bigger, increase the chances of getting a blow job in the skidoo hut outside Kudeta and waking up next to a complete stranger.

All stories contained within are purely fictional and shouldn't be taken seriously.

Anyone found taking anything too seriously should be held down, given alcohol and violated with the handle of a ski pole.

ASK THE SNOW BEAR he knows if you' ve steped on the cracks in the pavement.

Dear Dr Bear

I have an itch... sorry a problem

So I went to meribel for an evening

It was nice to get out of my resort for while .. I unfortunately got stuck over there so I had 2 options.

Option 1. Find a girl and stay at hers?

Option 2. Or give a taxi driver a blozzer !?

So I went for option 1 .. As I like girls and sweaty french taxi drivers dont do it for me !

So I found a girl she was really nice and thankfully she invited me back to hers ;)

I woke in the morning after an awesome night .. Got her number and left for Courchevel

All was great until 2 days later !

It started with an itch ! (It's not a hot chocolate song)

Now I have a rash !

I now wish I took option 2 !!

Please help

Hi Itchy and Scratchy

Ok firstly the bear says always wear protection and I don't mean an ABS avalanche pack !

Secondly taxi drivers prefer cash than a blozzer from a dude .. Unless George Michael is the driver !

So always presume only cash will do !

So this is what to do ... get down to the local docs and let him have a good laugh... sorry a good look at it , just incase its just a sweat rash .. If it's anything more serious then get it sorted and inform the meribel infection carrier of the news she probably already knows .

Keep it wrapped up

2 years ago we did Courchevel monopoly, last year we went all Breaking Bad. Now only for 2015 the Courchevel season-naire t-shirt and hoody design goes all....

THE WORKING DEAD

because after 5 months of putting up with annoying guests all you want to do is eat their brains. hmhhh braaaains

As always we do the ultimate soft sell. No arms will be twisted, no threats made. I would love to sell a garment to everyone but I know that will never happen. BUT I would like EVERYONES name on the back of the hoody. So when you see the form making the rounds of the company if you don't want to buy a hoody or a t-shirt please just write your first name, nickname and last name. If you don't order anything please, when they arrive in resort, do not give me the puppy dog eyes and ask if I have any extras, with the colour and size options its just not feasible to print any extras on the off chance.

If you would like more a copy of the forms for your company call 0675643234 or email info@courchevelenquirer.com.

SKI POWER DISAPPEARS

Last week we saw the demise of the La Tania tour operator, Ski Power. Best known for the radioactive symbol in its logo and some truly bad reviews on Trip advisor. But as one company vanishes another appears in its place. On the 20th January we saw the creation (SIC) of Ski Chalet Creations Ltd by Ski Powers, Craig Norwood. Skichaletcreations.com and .co.uk were also registered on the 16th...

Rumor has it that Ski Powers Craig Norwood actually owns the chalets, which he rented back to Ski Power. If that is true then something is rotten in the state of Denmark La Tania. Although I feel sorry for all the guests, some of whom had been asked to pay all the way up to the 16th January, have been told by the administrators that they have lost all their money might have insurance to fall back on, I feel doubly sorry for the season workers, who for no fault of their own, have had their winter cut short, not been paid and have to either quickly find alternative employment or leave resort.

Looking back over recent history of Courchevel, Ski Power joins other companies like Descent International who left resorts full of creditor high and dry as they went into administration and just renamed and continued to run most of the chalets exactly as before albeit having to pay for everything in resort in cash as some business had worked out what they had done..

THIS SHIT IS CRAY CRAY

You would've been forgiven if you thought Emma had forgotten Aaron's weekly full body wax. I'm no expert but I can imagine once these wookies get wet they will take along time to completely dry out and could end up smelling like a damp Labradoodle. These outfits are available in brown, purple or leopard and retail for around €1900.
